

BODY OF BRADY SHIPPED TO-DAY FROM LIVERPOOL

Some Place His Wealth at $30,000,000, but Wall Street
Thinks This Too Low.

DIED OF HEART DISEASE.

Sons to Take Over Interests
In Traction and Lighting Companies.

The body of Anthony N. Brady, who died at the Carlton Hotel in London Tuesday evening, left Liverpool to-day in the White Star liner Baltic and will reach New York next week. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but friends of the Brady family assume that the dead financier will be buried in Albany, the home of his youth.

Mr. Brady died of angina pectoris, or heart disease, of which he had long been a victim. He left New York three weeks ago against the advice of his physicians, but he had some business in London that he thought required his personal attention. He was under medical treatment on the ship bound for Europe and after his arrival in London.

Mr. Brady's body was taken from the Carlton within a few hours after he expired and conveyed to a mortuary chapel nearby. Visitors calling on Mr. Brady were told he could not be seen. One caller yesterday afternoon, an American business man who had an appointment, was told Mr. Brady was "out." At that time the body was on the way to Liverpool.

The death of Mr. Brady was without effect on the stock market, in whose affair he had so long been a factor. There was no evidence of inside support of the issues with which his name was most prominently connected—in fact, one of the most prominent of these, Consolidated Gas, was not quoted during the day. Brooklyn Rapid Transit merely declined a fraction in common with the rest of the list.

Many big coups in these issues were engineered by Mr. Brady, and in them he is credited with having made a large part of his fortune, which Wall Street estimates will inventory from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000, with the chances favoring the larger rather than the smaller.

In the Street it is understood that his sons, Nicholas F., who not long since succeeded him in the affairs of the Edison Company, and James C., who have looked after much of his business of late years, will continue to work on the lines laid down by him for the conduct of the many corporations in which he was a guiding spirit.

TOLD BY FORTUNE TELLER TO BRING FRESH EGG

But Instead Woman Sleuth Brought a Warrant Which Was a Lot Cheaper.

"And the next time you come to see me," said Jennie Meyer, of No. 701 Dumont avenue, fortune teller, to Mrs. Jennie Sherman, matron of the City Prison in Jersey City, "you bring along a guaranteed fresh egg and I'll tell you the name of the man you are going to marry after your husband dies, and other interesting information."

Inasmuch as Mrs. Sherman's husband died fifteen years ago and she had visited Mrs. Meyer's fortune-telling sanatorium on a sleuthing mission, she saved herself the expense of a fresh egg. Instead she went to court and got a warrant, which didn't cost her anything. The warrant charged Mrs. Meyer with obtaining twenty-five cents under false pretenses, that sum being the amount the fortune teller charged for telling Mrs. Sherman that she was going to lose her husband.
